

Strong IP provisions in U.S. trade agreements will demonstrate to countries like India that the U.S. is firmly committed to protecting intellectual property.

Thank you holding this hearing today and for your interest in obtaining more information on the opportunities and challenges facing Pfizer and other U.S. companies doing business in India.

Embargoed until March 13th 2013 at 10AM