

PERMISSIBLE USE OF COPYRIGHTED BOOKS IN INDIA

Private or personal use fair dealing for the purposes of private or personal use, including research

Criticism or review fair dealing for the purposes of criticism or review of the book or of another work e.g. publishing of guide books

Educational Instruction

reproduction by a teacher or a pupil in the course of instruction e.g. preparation of course packs compiling photocopies of the relevant portions of different books prescribed in the syllabus, and their distribution to the students by educational institutions

Copies for non-commercial public libraries

- storing of a digital copy by a non-commercial public library for preservation if it already possesses a non-digital copy
- making of up to 3 copies for use of a non-commercial public library if the book is not available for sale in India

Examinations

reproduction as part of the questions to be answered in an examination or in answers to such questions

Reading or recitation in public reading or recitation in public of reasonable extracts

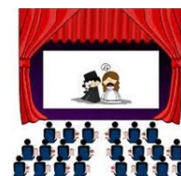

Reporting of current events

- fair dealing for reporting of current events and current affairs
- reproduction of an article on current economic, political, social or religious topics, in a newspaper, magazine or other periodical, unless author has expressly reserved the right to reproduction to himself

Activities of educational institutions performance in the course of the activities of an educational institution by its staff and students, provided the audience is limited to such staff and students, students' parents and guardians and persons connected with institutions' activities

Accessible format copies adaptation, reproduction, issue of copies or communication to the public of a book in any accessible format by:

- any person to facilitate disabled persons to access the book for private or personal use, educational purpose or research
- any organisation working for benefit of such persons, on a non-profit basis, for use by them

Religious or official ceremony performance in the course of any bona fide religious ceremony or an official ceremony held by the government or any local authority

Judicial proceeding reproduction for the purpose of a judicial proceeding or that of a report of a judicial proceeding

Amateur club/society performance by an amateur club or society to a non-paying audience or for the benefit of a religious institution

