9	03/07/2025	M.NAGAPRASANNA	ADJOURNED
	Heard Smt. Jayna Kothari, learned senior counsel for the petitioners and Sri H. Shanthi Bhushan, learned Deputy Solicitor General of India along with Sri Anuj Udupa, learned counsel for the Union of India. The petitioners, three in number, are said to be suffering from cystic fibrosis, which is a rare disease. They are before this Court seeking permanent solution, of supply of medicines as treatment for such rare diseases. It is the contention of the learned senior counsel appearing for the petitioners that the representations are submitted by the patients, for the purpose of supply of medicines for rare disease and are not considered as on date. Sri Anuj Udupa, learned counsel for respondent – Union of India, would take serious objections for the submissions on non-consideration of the representations, as the representations were in the nature of public interest and not for the interest of the petitioners, as the last paragraph of the representation did indicate so. Be that as it may. Now, the petitioners - patients suffering from rare disease as indicated hereinabove, shall appear before the Centre of Excellence - Center for Human Genetics (CHG) attached to Indira Gandhi Hospital, Bengaluru. The petitioners - patients shall appear before the said Centre of Excellence on 09.07.2025. The petitioners - patients shall carry with them all the necessary documents and the reports of them being the patients of the cystic fibrosis. If the patients would come with all the documents and present themselves before the Centre of Excellence, the said Center for Human Genetics (CHG) attached to Indira Gandhi Hospital, Bengaluru, shall examine the patients in accordance with the policy, shall proceed with the treatment for rare diseases. A decision shall be taken and amount be released in terms of the policy in favour of those patients for medicines. The Centre of Excellence shall immediately communicate, to these petitioners and the amount if they are entitled under the policy shall be released without brooking any further delay, which shall be within those 15 days. Learned counsel appearing for the Union of India, would submit that the submissions are made only on the instructions that he has received, and would reserve right, to file statement of objections, if it would become necessary at any point in time, in future. List the matter on 25.07.2025. Last Updated On: 2025-07-05 15:45:59

10	27/06/2025	M.NAGAPRASANNA	ADJOURNED
	List this matter on 03.07.2025 for Further Hearing as a last chance for the Union of India to file their Statement of Objections, failing which, the Court would answer the petition on hearing the learned Senior Counsel appearing for the petitioners and if necessary the impleading applicant. Last Updated On: 2025-06-28 13:57:36

11	06/06/2025	M.NAGAPRASANNA	ADJOURNED
	Heard Smt. Jayna Kothari, learned senior counsel for the petitioners, Sri Anuj Udupa, learned standing counsel for the respondent – Union of India and Sri V. Srinivas Raghavan, learned senior counsel along with Sri Nikhil Joy, learned counsel for the impleading applicant. Learned senior counsel for the petitioners would submit that the action taken report of the Union of India on the policy for treatment of rare diseases should be placed on record. Learned standing counsel for the respondent – Union of India would submit that with regard to the threshold bar of maintainability of the petition as the prayer sought is in the nature of PIL and seeks two weeks time to file objections. Learned senior counsel for the petitioners submits that the impleading applicant is not a necessary party to these proceedings and therefore, seeks time to file statement of objections to I.A.No.1/2025.
